materially changed through legal proceedings begun yesterday, especially as to what is regarded as the head of the ticket—President of the Board of Aldermen.

John H. Voorhis, President of the Board of Elections, was served with notice to show cause before Justice Giegerich at 10:15 this morning why the board should not be restrained from printing the name of Michael A. Kelly, candidate of the Liberty Party, on the ballot. The order was sought by Joseph R. Hagerty of No. 166 Sterling Place, Brooklyn, through his attorney, Theodore T. Baylor, on the claim that there were not sufficient valid signatures on Kelly's nomination. Approximately 400 of those who signed, it is alleged, failed to register, and many failed to certify, as required, that they would vote for Kelly.

It has been conceded by both Republicans and Democrats that Kelly would poll a very substantial vote, drawing to himself the dissatisfied Irish, who oppose the League of Nations and are antagonistic to President Wilson, and the pro-Germans whose attitude is identical. Jeremiah O'Leary and Henry Weissmann are among the known pro-Germans who have come out openly for Kelly.

If Kelly's name is thrown off the ballot the Irish vote and the German vote may return to Tammany to the benefit of Robert L. Moran, the Tammany candidate for the Aldermanic Presidency, or the greater part of it may go to the Republicans. It probably will be divided, but in any case the result will be substantially affected.

Also returnable before Justice Giegerich this morning is an order for President Voorhis to show cause why the name of Stephen J. Madigan, who was nominated as an independent for the Supreme Court bench, should not be restored to the ballot. The Board of Elections eliminated Madigan on the ground that his petitions were irregular.

The Citizens' Union yesterday emphatically endorsed the candidacy of Henry H. Curran for Borough President of Manhattan. In its statement, it said in part:

"The Citizens' Union believes that it is of paramount importance this year that the absolute control of the Hyland-Tammany combination in the Board of Estimate and Apportionment should be broken. There is an opportunity to accomplish this in the election to the Board of La Guardia, as President of the Board of Aldermen and Curran as Borough President."

The Union finds that, as an opponent to Mr. Curran, "the boss" of the Democratic Party picked a leader from his own district, but it adds:

"Our support of Mr. Curran is not opposition to Mr. Boyle personally, nor does it mean that we have not a high regard for him as an administrator, to which we were glad to testify last year. It does mean that, irrespective of the qualifications of Mr. Boyle, we are convinced that his close affiliations with the controlling influence in Tammany Hall would make it impossible for him, if elected, to render as great a degree of service to the public, irrespective of party, as Mr. Curran could."

Among those who yesterday joined the staff of volunteer workers for Robert L. Moran was Capt. Edward A. Kelly, late of the Royal Flying Corps, and said to be the first American flyer to take part in the war. Capt. Kelly told Charles Thorpe, Mr. Moran's manager, he and Moran were boys together and that as Moran was unable to take part in his own campaign because of illness he wanted to do everything he could to aid in Moran's election. Kelly was wounded three times and retired for disability after nearly four years' service.

Mayor Hyland apparently has not forgotten he was late starting down the bay to meet the 27th Division and some one shouted to him from a small steamer: "Back to Palm Beach, you're four hours late." The "somebody" was William T. Simpson, now Republican candidate for Assembly in the 12th District of Kings County, and, it was said yesterday, Mayor Hyland's Vigilance Committee is going to stamp the district against Simpson.

It is asserted that the Mayor will lead the anti-Simpson corps of speakers, and the attack is to be based on Simpson's unwillingness to endorse the Mayor's stand against increased street car fares before he thoroughly investigates the question.

"I'll be on hand to meet him," said Mr. Simpson last night. "I hope I get an opportunity to speak and put before the voters the issue whether they want me to go to Albany as Hyland's candidate or as a self-respecting man."

In Queens County, the news yesterday that the Court of Appeals had decided that no Sheriff is to be elected there this fall completely upset campaign plans and robbed the election of considerable interest. Three parties, Democratic, Republican and Personal Liberty had named candidates. Since the Appellate Division held, ten days ago, that there should be an election, active campaigning for these candidates has been in progress. This has all been stopped and the campaign will assume merely a local character.

TOWNLEY TO REOPEN BANK.

Outlines Plans Before Mass Meeting of League.

FARGO, N. D., Oct. 22.—Leaders of the National Non-Partisan League yesterday placed before a mass meeting of its membership the case of the Scandinavian-American Bank of Fargo, which was closed recently by a majority of the State Bank Board and declared insolvent, they said, because of loans made to the league.

Then clerks took subscriptions for stock in the institution, which President A. C. Townley of the league declared must be made an $80,000 bank. The bank had $60,000 capital and $10,000 surplus as originally organized. "I want to see institutions built by the farmers in this State which no man can 'tear down,'" Townley declared. "This bank has been the mainstay in the financing of the Non-Partisan League almost since its beginning, and we must now make it the biggest bank in North Dakota. It is the innocent victim of an attack on the league."
